

The Federal Communications Commission

Dear The Federal Communications Commission,

Dear Sir or Madam, I strongly oppose the proposed changes in fees and taxes on prepaid phone services. This would unfairly burden those on limited income who use phones or prepaid card for safety. We already pay tax on the time that we buy. We very strongly oppose this proposed change.

Sincerely,

Ruth Shillair
5246 Crocus Ave.
Lansing, Michigan 48911